Boudoir Model Release

Rachel Payne Photography understands that boudoir photography is very personal and we respect your privacy. We will not share images online or in print without your permission. We never sell images to third parties. Because of this please mark the appropriate box regarding privacy & usage by our business.

Select the options that best suit you....

Please keep my images private, do not share with anyone. (This does not apply if certain images were chosen on page 2)

I will allow Rachel Payne Photography to use my images to show other potential clients samples (only books in the studio & only lingerie shots, no nudity).

I will allow Rachel Payne Photography to use only lingerie images for promotion on any social network and for prints.

I will allow Rachel Payne Photography to use nudes (tasteful of course) on the studios personal website.

I will allow the designated Make Up Artist / Hair Stylist to have lingerie images for their portfolio or website.

Circle the option that best suits you for sharing images:

Images show my face

Face cropped out

If certain images were chosen for sharing, please put them here:

When sharing images on social networks, you must use the images provided to you on the CD in the folder labeled 'Facebook | Sharing' that are watermarked.

Re-editing or cropping of images is not allowed. Please share images as given in their original state.

This is a supplemental release form, we will also need you to agree to the Model release. However, this release will override the terms of the Model release if there is any disagreement between the two.
